The Electrical Contractors' Association

W.T. Parker is a long serving member of the ECA and follows the ECA's Code of Fair Trading. Membership of the ECA required a demonstration of business success and technical competence. 80% of electrical work is carried out by members of the Electrical Contractors' Association.

The ECA Code of Fair Trading covers standards of work where both workmanship and materials and application of standards to the work comply with the current edition of the Regulations of Electrical Installation published by the IEE as well as relevant British Standards Codes of Practice (BS7671)

The ECA Performance Guarantee comprise:

- Guarantee of Work Scheme
'Subject to the terms and conditions of the scheme that is any work carried out by an ECA member fails to comply with the Relevant Standards, the work shall be rectified so that it shall comply with such standards'
- The Completion Guarantee Scheme
'Subject to the terms and conditions of the scheme that in the event that any work undertaken by an ECA member cannot be completed by reason of the ECA member's insolvency under the terms and conditions of the Completion Guarantee, the Association will bear the additional cost of completion of the work by the new electrical contractor'

The guarantee is conditional on appropriate use or maintenance of the installation by the customer, this shall be clearly staged in the terms of the guarantee.
